We are pleased to advise that Muxton School has now achieved 5 Star Award for Hygiene, which is the highest possible rating. Congratulation to Pip and all her staff.

Other News

Winter Illness

We are approaching the season of diarrhoea and vomiting and would remind parents to be mindful of the need to minimise the spread. Please note that children should not return to school until 48 hours after their symptoms have stopped. This guidance has been issued by the Health Protection Team.

Reception & KS1 Christmas Party

This will take place on the afternoon of Thursday 17th December. Please can children bring in party clothes on that morning in a named carrier bag, ready to change into after lunch.

We would be grateful for a donation of £1 per child to cover costs of healthy snacks and treats at the party. Please send this in to your child's teacher in a named envelope, labelled with 'Party Donations' before the day of the party.

Many thanks for your support.
